Cedarwood themed our holiday month on Christmas Music. Each room was decorated to music.

{ Christmas Cookies and Carols }

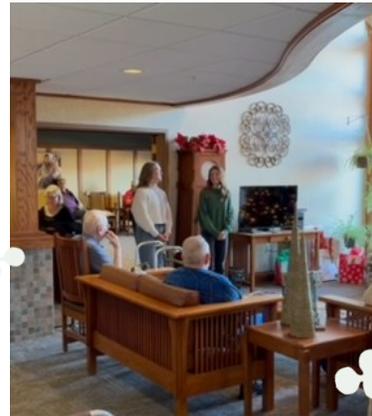

December 7th, Peggy Friesen played her wonderful piano music starting off our month of Cookies and Carols. Peggy is the daughter in-law of Dwaine Friesen.

{ Christmas Cookies and Carols }

On December 14, Grace Lutheran shared Christmas carols with us. The program included music from the Grace choir, a piano duet by Barb Bedlan and her grandson Marcus, and a saxophone and trumpet duet performed by Jody Lucking and her grandson Easton. Aliecia Bedlan and Cambria Meyer sang a duet, and the Grace choir concluded the music following Pastor Emery's devotion.

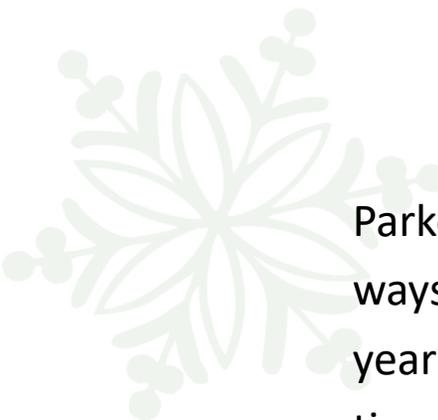

On December 21, Jansen Bible led us in carols and then shared a meaningful devotion. It was such a blessing to have all ages joining together in song.

Christmas Dinner

The warmth and love felt during our beautifully catered meal filled the room with joy and gratitude. It was a touching reminder that even later in life, moving into a shared community can open the door to deep friendships, comfort, and a true sense of belonging.

Allen and Connie Parker have filled the hallways every month this year with beautiful Christian Music. Thank you so much for spreading the word through music.

Jean Zabel's son in-law Joel Jank played some beautiful piano and cello Christmas music before our Christmas dinner. Thank you so much for a start of a beautiful evening.

Bobby Gadoury filled Cedarwood hall with beautiful Christmas music. Everytime Bobby comes we have a large crowd come and listen.

Santa came to Cedarwood

Love doesn't always come in a box—but today it sure showed up wrapped in kindness! Thank you to our amazing staff and wonderful community for all the thoughtful and beautiful gifts. We felt the love in every one.

Pen Pals

Our 2nd group of 4th graders. We made Santa sleighs out of candy.

Unwrapping Gift Game

Unwrapping gifts with oven mitts is not real easy. Eva, Marilyn, and John gave it a try and all received a gift.

Unseen, unheard but always near, Still
