THREADS OF LOVE - Cedarwood was filled with smiles, laughter, paint and love as tenants, families and friends came to create beautiful canvas quilt blocks. Every block told a story and added another stitch to the memories we share together along with the beautiful quilts that were displayed in hallways. Memories of our Mother's have been talked about all week. Some quilts displayed were made by the tenants or even some of the tenants mothers. Lots of generations of Love.

Barn Quilt on Canvas Event

50 canvases painted
Instructed by Miranda Pratt

Thank you to Rhonda and her team for the great appetizers at our fun night of painting.

Cedarwood partnered with Jefferson Community Health and Life Home Health/ Occupational Health to start Nurses Week. Boba teas and delicious sweet and salty mix provided by nutrition services.

Serving for the event were tenants from Cedarwood. Some of them were Nurses and some of them have family that are nurses.

Caring is the essence of Nursing.

Barb Blincow came to show us her many quilts! She had so many beautiful patterns and colors.

Jean Zabel showing her quilted wall hanging made by her. The fabric was from Alaska.

Cleo Dux's quilt was made from a family friend. The quilt is made from the dresses she wore as a little girl. She used to on her toddler bed that was passed down to Hummel family members.

Mary Kay Funke made a quilt from fabric squares from Hawaii.

Connie Mahlman showed us her antique lantern. The lantern was interesting as it had corn on it. Sylvia Cross showed and played her father's violin. Eleanor Klaus had the craft we made, it was a tea cup gnome. Belva Cassell had a painting that was done by Craig Cassell. Craig was a quadriplegic and drew with his teeth. Delores Kugels brought one of the many hats that she crocheted and gave to Orphan Grain Train. Belva Kerwood showed her quilt that her mother made. Belva is 97 years old. Lois Gentzler for many years belonged to the Idle club that quilted many quilts.
