Cedarwood Assisted Living

April 2026

There are moments that remind you what truly matters ... and today was one of them.

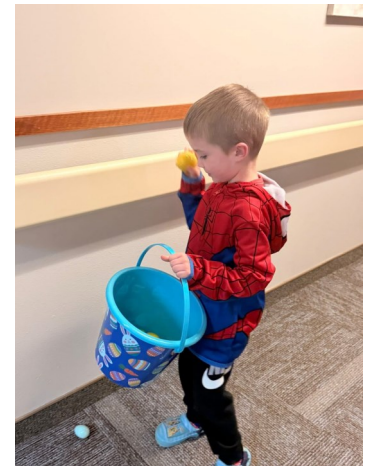

Our Easter egg hunt filled the halls with laughter, little footsteps and pure joy.

Watching these children search for eggs was beautiful— but even more powerful was seeing the faces of our tenants light up. There is something so special that happen when children enter our community.

Today we Celebrate life, hope, and the simple blessings
of being together
and also the chocolate.

Lois Gentzler meeting her pen pal and handing out the letters we wrote to them. Lois told her pen pal "I am 85 years older than you!" The pen pals will come April 15th to play Bingo!

Energizers

The Energizer came to spend the afternoon with Cedarwood. We played bingo, visited, and had ice cream.

Here is the Mahlman's with the energizer's sponsor London Gillam. London is from Chadron Ne. Same as Don. London is in the National Guard and Fairbury is his first teaching job. Don was in the Army and Fairbury was his first teaching job also. They had a great visit!

Entertainers

Rick Clarence came to entertain us on Good Friday it was a nice afternoon.

Tom Roth puts his heart into the music. He does a lot of interaction with everyone.

Bridging Generations

with JEFFS Gone Madd

A truly meaningful afternoon spent connecting across generations. We enjoyed bingo, candy dice game, made creative pinwheels and built Legos.

Most importantly, we loved the time spent together, laughing, talking, and getting to know one another.

It was a reminder of how special these intergenerational moments are and how much we can learn from one another.

The ice cream was extra yummy too..
